JUDGMENT

(Judgment of the Court was made by SATISH K. AGNIHOTRI, J.)

On the request of the learned counsel appearing for the parties, the writ appeal itself is taken up for disposal.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the appellant as well as the learned counsel appearing for the 1st respondent have made a joint endorsement to the effect that subsequent to coming into force of NCTE (Regulation Norms), Regulations, 2014, the appeal may be disposed of giving liberty to the authorities to consider the application and pass orders in accordance with law. The endorsement reads as under:

'Since NCTE brought new Regulations called NCTE (Recognition Norms) Regulations, 2014, which came into force from 1-12-2014, the 1st respondent Institution would abide by the said New Regulations. Accordingly, the Appellant NCTE may consider our application for continuance of Recognition under NCTE Regulations, 2014 and to pass a revised order to that effect.

In terms of the above made endorsement, the writ appeal may be disposed of.'

3. In view of the foregoing, without expressing any opinion on the merit, we dispose of the appeal accordingly. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
