This Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed by the mother-in-law of of the detenu to direct the 2nd respondent to trace out the whereabouts of the petitioner's son-in-law, named, G.Aruldas, and produce him before this Court and reunite the petitioner's daughter with him.

2. The detenu is the son-in-law of the petitioner. According to the petitioner, he left to Kerala after informing his wife/petitioner's daughter that he had to attend an interview in a Shipping Company and thereafter, he did not return home. The petitioner reliably learnt that he resigned his work from the said Company. Since the detenu did not return home, his wife gave a complaint before the respondent police on 24.01.2015 which has been registered as CSR.No.W6/CSR/22/2015. However, no effective steps were taken by the respondent police to trace the detenu. Hence, the petitioner has approached this Court by filing this Habeas Corpus Petition.

3. When the matter was taken up, the detenu was produced by the 2nd respondent police. On being enquired, we found that there is a matrimonial dispute between detenu and his wife. Therefore, we thought it fit to refer the matter to the Mediation and Conciliation for amicable settlement.

4. The Mediation report has been filed today, which reads as follows:

"Both the husband and wife present. The husband states that he has filed a petition for divorce before the Family Court, Chennai. He has also represented that he will vacate the house at Annanur and pay the advance given to the house to the wife. Hence, the matter is sent back to the Hon'ble Court.

5. Since the detenu is not willing to go either with the mother-in-law/petitioner or with his wife, we deem it fit to permit him to go as per his wish. Hence, the Habeas Corpus Petition is closed as no further order is necessary. It is needless to state that it is open to the parties to seek their remedy, if any, before the appropriate forum, in the manner known to law.
