The matter was not listed today. Since the Police has secured the alleged detainee, the Registry was directed to put up a special list.

2. The father of the alleged detainee has sought for a Writ of Habeas Corpus to direct the respondents to produce the body of his daughter, R.Rajasulochana, before this Court and set her at liberty.

3. According to the petitioner, his daughter was abducted by the 3rd respondent, a close relative of the petitioner on 17.12.2014. He further submitted that the 3rd respondent is involved in various illegal activities. Therefore, the petitioner has given a complaint on 14.01.2015 to the 2nd respondent police and a case in Crime No.13 of 2015 has been registered. According to the petitioner, the detainee is in the illegal custody of 3rd respondent. Since no effective steps were taken by the respondent police to secure the detainee, he was constrained to file this Habeas Corpus Petition.

4. Today, the 2nd respondent police has produced the alleged detainee, R.Rajasulochana. The petitioner as well as his wife is present in Court. When the detainee was enquired, she had stated before us that the 3rd respondent is her own aunt's son and she had love affair with him. She further stated that she got married to him, however, she is willing to go with her parents only along with the 3rd respondent. She further stated that she had left her parents home on her own and she also denied the illegal detention by the 3rd respondent as alleged in the petition. We enquired the parents of the detainee. They were willing to take the detainee and the 3rd respondent.

5. In the light of what is stated by the detainee and her parents, the detainee is permitted to go with her parents as per her wish. Hence, the Habeas Corpus Petition is closed.
