2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent.

3. In my considered opinion, no blanket direction as prayed for by the petitioner can be given. If the petitioner is wanted either for enquiry or for interrogation, he can very well be summoned by the respondent police and while doing so, the petitioner shall not be harassed. At the same time, the petitioner should submit himself to the respondent for interrogation and enquiry.

4. With the above observation, the Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.

The seal of the Tamil Nadu High Court is a circular emblem. It features a central image of the Lion Capital of Ashoka, which is a four-lion capital carved from a single block of dark soapstone. The lions are facing the four cardinal directions. The capital is set on a high, cylindrical abacus decorated with a frieze of animals in high relief. The entire emblem is surrounded by a green border containing the text 'TAMIL NADU HIGH COURT' at the top and 'सत्यमेव जयते' at the bottom.
