.... Respondents

Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for the issuance of writ of Mandamus, directing the respondents 1 to 3 to count half of the service rendered by the petitioner's husband as from 1.11.1985 to 6.8.2009 on daily wage basis along with the petitioner's husband regular service from 07.08.2009 till 13.09.2013, the date prior to the petitioner's husband death on 14.09.2013, so as to enable the petitioner to get family pension and consequently direct the respondents 1 to 3 to send revised pensionary proposal to the fourth respondent, direct the fourth respondent to pay family pension to the petitioner with all consequential benefits within a specified period.

For Petitioner : Mr.S.Mani
For Respondents : Mr.N.Inbanathan,
Government Advocate (Forest)

O R D E R

With the consent of both sides, the Writ Petition itself is taken up for final disposal.

2. The petitioner's husband was appointed as Plot Watcher on daily wage basis in the Forest Department on 01.11.1985 and his services were regularised vide order dated 29.08.2009 and was brought into regular time scale of pay as Plot Watcher (Supernumerary post) on 07.08.2009 after a period of 26 years of long service. The petitioner has come up with this writ petition seeking for a direction to the 1 to 3 to count half of the service rendered by the petitioner's husband as from 1.11.1985 to 6.8.2009 on daily wage basis along with the petitioner's husband regular service from 07.08.2009 till 13.09.2013, the date prior to the petitioner's husband death on 14.09.2013, so as to enable the petitioner to get family pension and consequently direct the respondents 1 to 3 to send revised pensionary proposal to the fourth respondent, direct the fourth respondent to pay family pension to the petitioner with all consequential benefits.

3. According to the petitioner, she was not paid family pension, since, her husband did not render 10 years of regular service in the respondent Department. Further, the grievance of the petitioner is that half of the service rendered by her husband as Plot Watcher on daily wage basis was not taken into account along with his regular service from 07.08.2009 till the date of his death as qualifying service.

4. As per Rule 11(2) of the Tamil Nadu Pension Rules, 1978, 50% of the contingency services will be taken into account for the purpose of pension, if the employee is subsequently absorbed in regular service. This Court had passed various orders on the above lines, and one such order was made in W.P.No.33732 of 2014 dated 19.12.2014 [R.Yuvaraj v. Government of Tamil Nadu, Rep. by Secretary to Government], wherein, this Court directed the respondents therein to count half of the service of the petitioner therein as Casual Labourer along with regular service for the purpose of pension. The order dated 19.12.2014 in the said W.P.No.33732 of 2014 is implemented by the Tamil Nadu Veterinary and Animal Sciences University by order dated 24.02.2015.

5. The learned counsel for the petitioner relied on a decision of this Court in W.P.No.8205 of 2011 dated 19.04.2011 [M.Gopal Vs. Government of Tamil Nadu, Rep. by Secretary to Government], which decision was confirmed by a Division Bench of this Court in W.A.No.27 and 28 of 2012 dated 13.02.2012 [Government of Tamil Nadu, Rep. By its Secretary to Govt., Vs. M.Gopal].

6. I am of the view that the said judgment is directly on this issue. Non-regularisation of the husband of the petitioner for the decades together is not on his default.

7. In these circumstances, the writ petition is disposed of, directing the respondents 1 to 3 to count half of the service of the petitioner's husband as Plot Watcher on daily wage basis along with his regular service from 7.8.2009 till 13.09.2013, the date prior to his death as qualifying service for the purpose of granting family pension. No costs.
