- (ex-parte before the Tribunal) .. Respondents

This case came up for settlement before the Lok Adalat. Mr.A.Dhiravianathan, learned counsel for the appellant and Mr.K.M.Ramesh and Ms.J.Vimala Ramesh, learned counsel for the first respondent are present. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter as follows:-

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

The Tribunal has awarded a sum of Rs.2,22,000/- with interest at 7.5% per annum from the date of numbering of petition till the date of deposit (excluding the period of default if any) and costs as compensation. Aggrieved by the award of the Tribunal, the appellant / Insurance Company had preferred the present appeal.

2. After due deliberation and consultation, both the parties have agreed to modify the award to a sum of Rs.2,00,000/- (Rupees Two Lakhs only) along with interest at 7.5% per annum from the date of petition till the date of deposit as compensation.

3. The appellant / Insurance Company is directed to deposit the above said modified award amount with interest, after deducting the amount already deposited if any, within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

4. On such deposit, the first respondent / claimant is permitted to withdraw the above said modified award amount along with interest without filing any formal petition. Award is passed accordingly.

5. The Tribunal is directed to issue the cheque to the party concerned on proper identification in accordance with the terms of the award, without insisting on any formal permission petition. The Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is disposed of accordingly. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed, if any.
