The petitioner has come to this Court challenging the second condition of the stay orders passed by the Appellate Deputy Commissioner (CT) East, Chennai, the first respondent herein, in SP.

No.180 of 2015 in APV No.179 of 2015/East, SP. No.181 of 2015 in APV No.180 of 2015/East, SP. No.182 of 2015 in APV No.181 of 2015/East and SP. No.187 of 2015 in APV No.184 of 2015/East dated 13.04.2015 to quash and consequently direct the first respondent to grant an absolute stay for the balance of tax and the entire penalty amount without insisting upon furnishing of bank guarantee, till the disposal of the appeals pending on the file of the first respondent.

2. Challenging the second condition imposed against the petitioner, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the approach adopted by the first respondent clearly shows that he has failed to appreciate Section 24(2) of the TNGST Act and Section 42 of the TNVAT Act read with Section 9 of the CST Act. A joint reading of this provision clearly shows that there has been an automatic charge created on the assets of the petitioner and therefore, there is no necessity for a direction to file security for the balance amount of taxes. That apart, at the time of filing an appeal, the petitioner has also deposited 25% of the disputed tax amount and again when the stay application has been taken up, the first respondent directed the payment of another 25% of the disputed tax amount. That amount was also paid. While so, the petitioner is not in a position to file a Bank Guarantee for the balance amount of tax and penalty.

3. This Court in a similar occasion, while considering an identical circumstances, dealing with a similar impugned order, modified only the second condition to one of directing the petitioner to execute the personal bond instead of furnishing bank guarantee for the balance amount of tax and penalty.

4. Mr. A.N.R. Jaya Prathap, learned Government Advocate (Taxes) taking notice for the respondents and agreeing to the said submission, requested this Court to direct the petitioner to execute personal bonds to that effect, within a week's time.

5. In view of the fact that this Court has already considered the similar prayer, following the similar order, these writ petitions stand disposed of by confirming the first condition and replacing the second condition to one of directing the petitioner to execute a personal bond for the balance amount of tax and penalty, as there has been an automatic charge created in view of Section 24(2) of the TNGST Act and Section 42 of the TNVAT Act read with Section 9 of the CST Act. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to execute the personal bond within a period of ten days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. With this direction, all the writ petitions are disposed of, at the stage of admission itself. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed. No order as to costs.
