Heard both sides. Mr.V.Jayaprakash Narayanan, learned Special Government Pleader takes notice for the first respondent and Mrs.P.Rajalakshmi takes notice for the second respondent. By consent of both the parties the writ petition is taken up for final disposal.

2.The prayer in the writ petition itself lies in a narrow compass. The husband of the petitioner was employed as a Junior Assistant in the second respondent municipality/ corporation. He died on 11.05.2004. The petitioner immediately made a representation to the second respondent on 22.03.2007 and 14.09.2013. The second respondent directed to furnish certain documents. Accordingly, the petitioner also furnished the documents. However, no order is made providing compassionate appointment. In the circumstances, the petitioner also made another representation dated 05.04.2010 and 22.12.2014 to the first respondent seeking compassionate appointment. As there is no response, the petitioner has filed the present writ petition.

3.At the time of hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the writ petition could be disposed of by directing the second respondent to consider her claim for compassionate appointment on merits and in accordance with law within a stipulated time.

4.In view of the narrow prayer made during the hearing, the writ petition is disposed of by directing the second respondent to consider the claim of the petitioner for compassionate appointment, within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
