By consent, the writ petition is taken up for final disposal.

2. The petitioner got admission to the 2nd respondent College under State Quota and joined the college in M.S. (Dermatology DVL) during the Academic Year 2010-12 and at the time of joining the course, all the original certificates were entrusted to the 2nd respondent on the promise that after completion of the course, they will be returned to her. The 2nd respondent also got a bond executed by the petitioner like other students and since, she has to undergo the Postgraduate course, she was not in a position to refuse the execution of bond and she also executed the same under undue influence and compelling circumstances. The petitioner after completing the PG course during April 2012, requested for return of all her original certificates. But, it was refused by the 2nd respondent, who insisted on complying the bond condition and she has paid a sum of Rs.10 Lakhs by means of a Demand Draft, in the account of Dean Welfare Fund and thereafter, got her original certificates.

3. The petitioner would contend that in respect of an admission under All India as well as State quota, bond amount cannot be collected and it is liable to be refunded and in this regard, she submitted a representation dated 18.04.2015 to the respondents and since, she has not been favoured with any response, came forward to file this writ petition.

4. Mr.G.Justin, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has drawn the attention of this Court to the order dated 12.12.2008 made in W.P.No.12923 of 2008, which was confirmed in the judgment dated 11.11.2011 in W.A.No.1444 of 2008 and would submit that in the light of the above said judgment, coupled with the fact that the agreement was also a unilateral one executed by the petitioner under compelling circumstances, prayed for refund of the bond amount collected from the petitioner.

5. The Court heard the submissions of Mr.R.Vijayakumar, learned Additional Government Pleader, who accepts notice on behalf of the respondent and it is relevant to extract the order dated 12.12.2008, made in W.P.No.12923 of 2008.

"30. In fine, all the writ petitions are disposed of on the following terms:

(1) The PG Degree/Diploma holders, who applied for their Degree/Diploma Course through All India Entrance Examination for selection to All India Quota seats and admitted to Tamil Nadu Government Medical Colleges are not bound by the terms and conditions issued by the respondents through their prospectus. Even if any candidate executed bond, it will have no effect since they have not applied for admission under the impugned prospectus.

(3) No PG Degree / Diploma Holder shall be denied of their certificates in original on their completion of their course as the respondents have no jurisdiction to retain their certificates and the respondents are directed to return all the certificates of the petitioners within two weeks from the date of the receipt of copy of this order...."

6. Though, the petitioner has prayed for a larger relief, this Court, without going into the merits of the claim projected by the petitioner, directs the 2nd respondent to consider the representation dated 18.04.2015 submitted by the petitioner, in accordance with law after taking note of the above said order and pass orders within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and communicate the decision taken, to the petitioner.

7. The writ petition is disposed of, accordingly. No costs.
