(Made by The Hon'ble The Chief Justice)

The petitioner was desirous of having the Sub Registrar's Office constructed on 5 cents of land gifted by him, while the proposal of the Government was to construct it in 20 cents of land received from other villages being the larger area. On 12.01.2009, the aforesaid facts are noticed, as also the submission of the learned counsel for the State that if the petitioner wants 5 cents of land to be used for any other purpose, he can make a representation to that effect and if he wants re-conveyance of land, he may file an application in that regard. The petitioner took time to obtain instructions on 12.01.2009. Thereafter, the matter has not been listed.

2. We, thus, dispose of the writ petition in view of the offer made by the learned counsel for the respondents on 12.01.2009. No costs. Consequently, M.P.No.1 of 2009 is closed.
