The petitioners retired as Extension Officer (since upgraded as Block Development Officers) and Block Development

Officer respectively.

2. The petitioners underwent two years training period in the cadre of Rural Welfare Officer Grade II.

3. By G.O.Ms.No.164 Rural Development Department, dated 30.07.1992, the persons who have undergone Rural Welfare Officer training were permitted to count the two year training period for the purpose of probation and increment. Based on the said Government Order, writ petition was filed claiming the benefit. The writ petition was allowed by this Court and the Government issued G.O.Ms.No.105 Rural Development and Panchayat Raj, dated 19.11.2010 in compliance of the order of this Court. Similarly situated persons approached this Court for similar relief and the Government issued G.O.Ms.No.85, Rural Development and Panchayat Department, dated 11.09.2012, in compliance of the order of this Court.

4. The petitioners herein, also claim similar relief and they made representation, dated 12.08.2014 in this regard. The learned counsel for the petitioners prays for disposal of the said representation in the light of G.O.Ms.No.105 and 85 referred to above, within a stipulated period.

5. The learned Special Government Pleader objected the very maintainability of the writ petition on the ground of laches. I am not inclined to agree with the objection made by the learned Special Government Pleader. When similarly situated persons were granted relief, the Government ought to have granted relief to the petitioners also without driving them to approach this Court. The persons, who claim the benefit under the said government orders also retired long back and they were granted relief by this Court and the same was also implemented by issuing Government Orders.

6. In view of the above, the writ petition is disposed of by directing the first respondent to consider the representation of the petitioners dated 12.08.2014 and pass appropriate orders in the light of G.O.Ms.No.105 dated 19.11.2010 and G.O.Ms.No.85 referred to above, within a period of twelve weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
