ORDER

This Criminal Revision Case is filed against the order dated 27.07.2009 passed in Special C.C.No.7 of 2008 on the file of the Special Judge under the Prevention of Corruption Act/Principal Sessions Judge at Puducherry dated 27.07.2009.

2. The petitioner/complainant has preferred a complaint alleging that the public fund was misused by the respondents, thus, they committed the offences punishable under Section 13(1)(d)(i)(ii)(iii) of the Prevention of Corruption Act and under Sections 166, 406, 409 IPC. The case was tried by the Special Judge under the Prevention of Corruption Act at Puducherry in Special C.C.No.7 of 2008. The learned Special Judge ultimately found that the allegations levelled against the respondents are false. Hence, the learned Special Judge ultimately held that the complainant has committed the offences under Sections 191 IPC r/w. 193 Part I IPC and U/s. 199 r/w. 193 Part I IPC, for which, he has to be prosecuted. It was further held that there is no sufficient materials to hold that the accusation against the accused has some base and to proceed further and hence, the complaint given by the complainant was dismissed.

3. Today, when the matter is taken up, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner/complainant submitted that the petitioner will not make any further offensive statement or any unnecessary complaint against the respondents, for which, the respondents agree. Both sides agreed that recording the above statement, the revision itself may be closed.

4. Recording the above statement that the petitioner will not make any further offensive statement or any unnecessary complaint against the respondents, this Criminal Revision Case is closed. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
