These criminal original petitions have been filed seeking a direction to the first respondent to investigate into the complaints in Crime No.88 of 2015 and to file a Final Report now pending on the file of the first respondent.

2. The first respondent has registered a case in Crime No.88 of 2015 as against one R.V.Narmadha for the alleged offences under sections 406, 420 r/w.34 of IPC on basis of the complaint lodged by T.Venkatakrishnan, S/o.V.Dhanappan. The second respondent, who is the proprietor of India Track Call Taxi, was offering a scheme for hiring Mxi Cab Car. The second respondent promoted the scheme through SMS to various people. The petitioners having been lured by the promises of the second respondent, deposited huge sum running to several crores. After collecting the amount, the second respondent misappropriated the money received by the petitioners to his personal gain and cheated the petitioners. Hence, the petitioners also lodged complaint against the second respondent. Now, the petitioners have come forward with the present petitions to direct the first respondent to complete the investigation and file final report.

3. I have heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor has submitted that as on date there are 130 victims and they are expecting some more complaints and therefore, it would take some time to complete the investigation and file final report.

5. In view of the submissions made by the petitioners as well as the Additional Public Prosecutor, this Court directs the first respondent to investigate the case in Crime No.88 of 2015 pending on his file and file a final report as expeditiously as possible.

6. The Criminal Original Petitions are ordered accordingly.
