2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent.

3. The petitioners herein are the first and second accused in the case in Crime No.11 of 2012. Therefore, in my considered opinion, if the defacto complainant would have come before this Court and have sought for the above said direction, appropriate direction would be given. Hence, I am not inclined to entertain this petition. Therefore, the criminal original petition stands dismissed.
