W.P. No.28307 of 2015

Petitioner

Vs.

The Revenue Divisional Officer

Salem District

Respondent

Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking a writ of mandamus directing the respondent to issue community certificate to the petitioner's son namely Minor T.K. Saaswat that he belongs to Kondareddis Scheduled Tribes Community as per the application of the petitioner dated 22.08.2013 based upon the Community Certificate already issued to the petitioner and his family members.

For petitioner Mr.V. Elangovan

For respondent Mrs. A. Srijayanthi
Special Government Pleader

ORDER

(Order of the Court was delivered by SATISH K. AGNIHOTRI, J.,)

Mrs. A. Srijayanthi, learned Special Government Pleader, accepts notice for the respondent. With the consent of the learned counsel on either side, the writ petition is taken up for disposal, at the admission stage itself.

2 This writ petition is filed seeking a writ of mandamus directing the respondent to issue Kondareddis (ST) community certificate to the petitioner's son by name Minor T.K.Saaswat based on the petitioner's application dated 22.08.2013.

3 The petitioner, claiming that he belongs to Kondareddis (ST) community, has made an application on 22.08.2013 to the respondent seeking issuance of such community certificate to his son by name Minor T.K. Saaswat. Since no orders have been passed on the said application, the petitioner has come up with the instant writ petition seeking the aforestated relief.

4 From a perusal of the petitioner's application dated 22.08.2013, it is manifest that in support of his claim of belonging to Kondareddis ST community, copies of his community certificate, birth certificate of his son and a copy of the transfer certificate issued by the school were enclosed therewith.

5 By this petition, the petitioner is seeking a direction to the respondent to consider his application and issue community certificate accordingly. We have been repeatedly observing that a community comprises not only the members of the family, but also the members of the same group or tribe. In the case on hand, when the petitioner has been issued with community certificate to the effect that he belongs to Kondareddis (ST) community, the petitioner's son is also entitled to get such community status and we are at a loss to understand as to why the petitioner's application has been kept pending without any orders being passed.

6 Needless to state that if any doubt crops up in the mind of the competent authority qua the genuineness of the community certificate issued to the petitioner while considering his application seeking community certificate for his son, the only course open to the competent authority is to refer the same to the State Level Scrutiny Committee and not to take a contrary stand by dis-crediting the community certificate issued to the petitioner, without appropriate order being passed by the State Level Scrutiny Committee. In other words, if the competent authority has any doubt about the genuineness of the community certificate issued to the petitioner, he has no competence to ignore the same, unless the same is set aside or modified by the higher authority, i.e., the State Level Scrutiny Committee and he can only refer the matter to the State Level Scrutiny Committee.

7 For the aforesaid reasons, we direct the respondent to consider the petitioner's application dated 22.08.2013 on merits and in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. The writ petition stands disposed of accordingly. No costs.
