The respondents-authority state that the area beyond the four corners of the shops has been cleared and a vigil is being maintained to ensure that there is no re-encroachment. We take the said stand on record, making it clear that if any re-encroachment is permitted, that will be under pain of contempt.

2.The private respondents are also stated to have given an undertaking before this Court that they will carry on business only within the four corners of their shops. Their undertaking is accepted and they shall remain bound by the undertaking and the learned counsels are also made aware of the consequences of violation of this undertaking, which would be under pain of contempt, apart from the fact that their shops would be locked-up.

3.In view of the aforesaid position, no further orders are required. Writ Petition, accordingly, stands disposed of. No costs.
