It is a case of the petitioner that the property in question belongs to his grandfather. It devolved upon his father by way of a Registered Will. The petitioner's father executed a settlement deed in favour of the petitioner, who is a practicing lawyer. It appears that the patta has been changed in favour of the private respondents herein. It was challenged by the petitioner before this Court and this Court, by order dated 31.10.2013 made in W.P.No.29715 of 2015, passed an order of interim injunction.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that suppressing the above said facts, a certificate has been obtained by the private respondents alleging that the original documents with respect to the property in question are missing, though the property continues to be with the possession of the petitioner. It is the further case of the petitioner that with the said documents obtained fraudulently, a settlement deed has been executed by some of the private respondents to their family members, who have also been impleaded as respondents in this writ petition.

3. The petitioner made a complaint to the first respondent on 10.08.2015 making the above said allegations. As the said complaint has not been looked into, the present writ petition has been filed seeking a direction to the respondents to conduct an enquiry and pass appropriate orders in view of Circular No.67, dated 03.11.2011.

4. Taking into consideration of the pendency of the representation/complaint of the petitioner dated 10.08.2015, a direction is issued to the first respondent to look into the same and take appropriate action in accordance with law, after affording a reasonable opportunity to the petitioner, private respondents and other third parties if so required, within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. With this direction, the writ petition stands disposed of. No Costs. M.P.No.1 of 2015 is closed.
