(The Order of the Court was made by The Hon'ble The Chief Justice)

In the counter filed by the Tamil Nadu Pollution Control Board, in paragraph-9, six documents have been specified as the pre-requisite to proceed in the matter. Thereafter, hearing will be conducted as per procedures laid down in the Environmental Impact Assessment notice dated 25.09.2006.

2. Learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioner states that while according to his instructions, these documents have been given to obviate any controversy in this behalf, he will supply the copies of the 6th and listed documents within two weeks.

3. Insofar as Item No.3 is concerned, the same refers to the revalidation of the draft for Rs.70,000/- and thus the draft will be returned to the petitioner within three days and the petitioner will re-submit the draft within the same period of two weeks.

4. The process of public hearing would commence within a month of the documents being submitted.

The writ petition accordingly stands closed in the aforesaid terms. No costs.
