(Made by The Hon'ble The Chief Justice)

The steps required to be taken in terms of para 2(i) and 2(ii) of our order dated 08.06.2015 stand complied with. As far as the step envisaged under para 2(iii) is concerned, the State Government is stated to have addressed the Central Government and now awaiting release of funds. The affidavit of the fourth respondent states that the construction of the school building will be started and the work completed within a year from the release of the funds by the Government of India.

2. In view of the aforesaid, no further directions are required other than for the matter to be followed-up by the State Government with the Central Government for release of funds.

3. The writ petition accordingly stands disposed of. No costs.
