Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India seeking a writ of certiorarified mandamus, calling for the records of the 4th respondent i.e., the Tahsildar, Marakkanam, culminating in A2/852/2015 dated 21.08.2015, quash the same and further direct the respondents not to take any coercive steps from evicting the petitioner from the shrimp farm in Survey Nos.608.2, 613.1, 612.1, 611.1, 610.2 and 609 an extent of 8 acres in Nadukuppam (East) Village, Marakkanam Taluk, Villupuram District.

For RR 1,2,4 and 5

Govt. Advocate (Forest)

ORDER

(delivered by SATISH K. AGNIHOTRI, J.)

Mr. N. Sakthivel, learned Government Advocate, accepts notice for respondents 1,2,4 and 5. Mr. N. Inbanathan, learned Government Advocate (Forest), accepts notice for the third respondent. With the consent of the learned counsel for the parties, the writ petition is taken up for final disposal, at the admission stage itself.

2 This writ petition is filed assailing the legality and validity of the eviction notice issued by the fourth respondent under Section 6 of the Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905 (for short "the Act") and to forbear the respondents from taking any coercive steps to evict the petitioner from the shrimp farm in Survey Nos.608.2, 613.1, 612.1, 611.1, 610.2 and 609 in Nadukuppam (East) Village, Marakkanam Taluk, Villupuram District.

3 The facts, in brief, leading to the filing of the instant writ petition are that on 24 July 2015, the petitioner was served with a notice under Section 7 of the Act, calling upon him to show cause within 21 days, as to why he should not be evicted from the property in question, the Government land in occupation by him, illegally and unauthorisedly. Pursuant thereto, the petitioner submitted his reply on 16 August 2015. Eventually, on 21 August 2015, the fourth respondent issued notice under Section 6 of the Act, directing the petitioner to vacate the property in question within 15 days from the date of receipt of the said notice. Feeling aggrieved by the same, the present writ petition for the aforestated relief.

4 The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner's reply, pursuant to the notice issued under Section 7 of the Act, was not considered properly and the impugned notice under Section 6 of the Act has been passed in a casual and stereo-typed manner.

5 Be that as it may, it is not that the petitioner does not have any other remedy, except assailing the impugned notice by filing this writ petition. The impugned notice passed under Section 6 of the Act, is appealable before the District Collector under Section 10 of the Act. Needless to state that under Section 10-B of the Act, there is also a provision for seeking interim relief. As such, there is no reason to bypass or sidestep the appeal jurisdiction to invoke the extra-ordinary jurisdiction of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

We, accordingly, dismiss the writ petition, reserving liberty to the petitioner to take recourse to the appellate forum, if so advised. For a period of two weeks from today, there shall be an order of status quo as obtained today, in respect of the property in question, to enable the petitioner to prefer an appeal as against the impugned notice, if so advised. Costs made easy. Connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
