O R D E R

Though the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has made his submission on merits, the learned counsel appearing for the respondent submitted that the stage is premature. What has been done is only a decision of the meeting held. This would be followed by comprehensive reasoned order, which would be communicated to the petitioner. Therefore, the petitioner is not a person aggrieved at this stage.

2. Considering the said submission, this Court is of the view that the petitioner can very well await the reasoned order to be communicated to him. In the event of the said order being against the petitioner, then it is well open to the petitioner to take recourse to law, if so advised.

3. Accordingly, the writ petition stands disposed of as premature at this stage leaving all the issues open. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
