In respect of the subject matter of the issue raised, a FIR is already stated to have been registered against the erring officials

4. We are of the view that the PIL would not be maintainable in a subject like this, apart from the fact that it would amount to interference with the investigation process. If the petitioner is any material germane to the subject matter of investigation, it is however, open to him to give this material to the Investigating Officer and on the final report being filed, if there are grievances, he can proceed in accordance with law.
