(Judgment of the Court was delivered by The Hon'ble Chief Justice)

On the last date of hearing, we were informed that applications have been filed for setting aside the abatement and impleadment of the legal heirs of the deceased second respondent, who passed away in 2009, but they are not numbered and we called upon the learned counsel for the appellants to ensure that the applications are numbered and placed before this Court.

2. Even today the position is no different.

3. We are, thus, of the view that the present proceeding stands abated and as and when the applications are brought on record, necessary orders will be passed. No costs.
