4. In all these cases interim orders to the following effect have been passed:-

"By way of an interim order, this Court directs respondent police to peruse the complaint preferred by petitioner herein and register a case if the same informs commission of cognizable offence. In particular instances, respondent police may resort to a petition enquiry which again shall not extend beyond a period of one week. This order is made towards effecting and ensuring compliance with the decision of the Apex Court in Lalita Kumari vs. Govt. of U.P. & others [2013 (4) Crimes 243 (SC)]. It is expected that respondent police will follow the dictate of the Apex Court in the aforesaid judgment in letter and spirit and not give room for any further action at the hands of this Court. In the event of respondent police not being in receipt of complaint allegedly preferred before them by petitioner, it would always be open for respondent police to inform such position at the next hearing date."

5. The respondents are to take note of the decision of the Honourable Supreme Court in Lalitha Kumar vs. Government of U.P. & Others* [2013(4) Crimes 243(SC)], permits the petition enquiry in a rare case and requires the same to be completed within a period of one week. Further, such decision makes clear that the purpose of petition enquiry only can be to ascertain whether prima facie cognizable offence is made out or not and not to arrive at a finding that the allegations in the complaint are true or false.

6. The respondents are directed to keep the above in mind in dealing with the complaints of the petitioners. This Court further directs that the respondents should register cases where reading of the complaint on the face of it discloses cognizable offences. This Court also makes it clear that if the conduct of the petition enquiry is seen to be a ruse to avoid registration of cases, the same would amount to disobedience of the orders of this Court.

7. These Criminal Original Petition shall stand closed with the observation that any disobedience of the orders of this Court would be actionable by way of contempt proceedings, which may be initiated by the respective petitioners, if considered appropriate. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
