3.Today, when the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the second respondent submitted that a joint compromise memo has been filed by the parties and duly signed by them and attested by their respective counsel stating that a compromise agreement has been entered into between the first petitioner and the second respondent on 01.07.2015 and the matter in issue between them has been amicably resolved and therefore, the 2nd respondent/defacto complainant is not willing to prosecute the case.

4. In the light of the compromise memo, no purpose will be served by keeping the Criminal Original Petition pending.

5. In the result, the Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the charge sheet in (*)C.C.No.185 of 2014 on the file of the Judicial Magistrate-cum-Additional Mahila Court, Madurai, is quashed. The Compromise Memo shall form part of the record.
