3.The learned counsel for the intervenor vehemently opposed this petition stating that the petitioners are the main accused in this case and the de-facto complainant was brutally attacked by the petitioners due to political motive. However, the learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that at the time of disbursing of free articles, a wordy quarrel arose between the accused and the de-facto complainant and thereafter, he fell down from the bike and sustained injuries. The learned counsel further submitted that the petitioners are falsely implicated in this case due to political animosity.

4. Heard the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the State.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, with certain conditions.

Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Devakottai and on each of them executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that the petitioners shall appear before the respondent police daily at 10.00 a.m. for period of one week.
