2. I have heard the counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

3. The Government Advocate (Crl.side), on instruction, would submit that there is a complaint against the petitioners by the defacto complainants, for which the petitioners have been called for enquiry and there is no such harassment against the petitioners and if any interrogation is needed by the respondent against the petitioners, the norms which are mentioned in the Judgement of Hon'ble Apex Court in D.K.Basu Vs. State of West Bengal reported in AIR (1997) SC 610, would be followed. He would further submit that there will not be any harassment against the petitioners and the enquiry or interrogation would be done in accordance with law.

4. Recording the statement of the Government Advocate (Crl.side) that the respondent police will not harass the petitioners in future under the guise of any enquiry, the criminal original Petition is closed. The petitioners cannot use this order to evade the enquiry that is going to be conducted and if any interrogation is needed from the police with regard to any enquiry, it is the duty cast upon the petitioners to participate and co-operate for the enquiry.
