... 4TH RESPONDENT/RESPONDENT/COMPLAINANT

Petition praying that in the circumstances stated therein and in the petition filed therewith the High Court will be pleased to cancel the anticipatory bail granted in CR.M.P. NO. 60 of 2015 dated 09.01.2015 on the file of Principal District Sessions Court, Tirunelveli.

Order : This petition coming on for orders upon perusing the petition filed in support thereof and upon hearing the arguments of M/S.R.RAMASAMY Advocate, Advocate for the petitioner and of Mr.A.P.BALASUBRAMANI, Government Advocate(Crl.side)for the state, the court made the following order:-

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner/defacto complainant and and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the State.

2.The petitioner seeks to cancel the anticipatory bail granted to the accused by the courts below in Cr.M.P.No.60 of 2015 on 09.01.2015.

3. According to the defacto complainant, who has filed this petition for cancellation of anticipatory bail, the accused after getting anticipatory bail had threatened the defacto complainant. In paragraph No.3 of this petition for cancellation of anticipatory bail, it is stated as follows:

3.It is submitted that the respondents 1 to 3 herein they are complying their condition before the fourth respondent police. The petitioner while waiting in the Sankarankovil bus stand at the time the respondents 1 and 2 herein came there at the time they saw the petitioner and started a quarrel and abused the petitioner and also stated that we got the anticipatory bail on the complaint given by you and also stated that if you have not given dowry, you will not be permitted to my home. It is further submitted that the

4. In paragraph No.3, it is not even stated as to when the accused threatened them and if the accused threatened them it is open for the defacto complainant to file a police complaint. Hence, it is not a fit case to cancel anticipatory bail . Under such circumstances, this petition is dismissed.
