For Petitioner : Mr.R.Alagumani

For Respondents : Mr.C.Ramesh, Addl.Public Prosecutor

ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by A.SELVAM, J.)

This Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying to call for records relating to the detention order passed in C.No.39/Detention / C.P.O/T.C/2014 dated 11.12.2014 by the detaining authority who has been arrayed as second respondent herein against the detenu by name Vetri @ Vetrivel S/o.Palanisamy and quash the same and thereby set him at liberty forthwith.

2. The Inspector of Police, Woraiyur Police Station as sponsoring authority has submitted an affidavit to the detaining authority, wherein it is stated that the detenu has involved in the following adverse case:

Crime No.255/2014, Ariyamangalam Police Station, Tiruchirapalli City, registered under Sections 387 and 506(ii) of the Indian Penal Code.

3. Further it is stated in the affidavit that on 05.05.2014, one Sakila as complainant has given a complaint to the Sub Inspector of Police, Woraiyur Police Station and the same has been registered in Crime No.193 of 2014 under Section 302 of the Indian Penal Code and subsequently altered into Sections 147, 148, 341, 120(b), 34, 149 and 302 of the Indian Penal Code and ultimately requested the detaining authority to invoke Act 14 of 1982 against the detenu.

4. The detaining authority after considering the averments made in the affidavit and other connected documents has derived subjective satisfaction to the effect that the detenu is a 'habitual offender' and ultimately branded him as 'goonda' by way of passing the impugned detention order and in order to quash the same, the present Petition has been filed by the mother of the detenu as petitioner.

5. On the side of the respondents a detailed counter has been filed, wherein it has been contended to the effect that all the averments made in the petition are false and ultimately prayed to dismiss the same.

6. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has contended that on the side of the detenu two representations have been submitted and the same are not disposed of without delay and therefore, the detention order in question is liable to be quashed.

7. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor has contended that all the representations submitted on the side of the detenu are duly disposed of without delay and therefore, the detention order in question does not call for any interference.

8. On the side of the respondents, a proforma has been submitted, wherein, with regard to first representation it has been clearly stated that in between column Nos.7 to 9, 3 clear working days are available and in between column Nos.12 and 13, 5 clear working days are available and with regard to second representation in between column Nos.7 to 9, 8 clear working days are available and in between column Nos.12 and 13, 4 clear working days are available and no explanation has been given on the side of the respondents with regard to huge delay in disposing of the representations submitted on the side of the detenu and that itself would affect his rights guaranteed under Article 22(5) of the Constitution of India and therefore, the detention order in question is liable to be quashed.

9. In fine, this Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the detention order dated 11.12.2014 passed in C.No.39/Detention/C.P.O/T.C/2014 by the detaining authority/second respondent herein is quashed and the detenu by name Vetri @ Vetrivel is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, unless he is required to be incarcerated in any other case.
