The petitioner is the father of one Ramya, whose date of birth is 26.04.1996. According to the petitioner, she has been found missing from 17.07.2015 onwards and that she was illegally detained by the third respondent.

2. Today, the detainee Ramya has been produced before this Court by the first respondent. On enquiry, she would state that she married the 2nd respondent on 20.07.2015 in Chennai and now she has been happily living with him as his wife. She would further state that she has not been illegally detained by anybody and now she wants to go with the 2nd respondent.

3. The petitioner and his wife Anandhi are also present before this Court. Since he wanted to speak to the detainee, in the larger interest of both parties, this Court permitted them to go before the Mediation and Conciliation Centre. Accordingly, the detainee, the respondents 2 and 3, the petitioner and his wife went before the Mediation Centre. Now, it has been reported that in the mediation, the detainee insisted that she only go with the 2nd respondent.

4. In view of the above, since Ramya is a major, she is set at liberty and she is at liberty to go with the 2nd respondent.

5. With the above direction, the Habeas Corpus Petition is disposed of.
