The grievance of the petitioner is that the results for 3rd Semester of B.E. Mechanical Engineering in which the petitioner appeared was not published.

2. Today, the learned counsel for the University has submitted that the result was published. The learned counsel for the petitioner has no objection to close the writ petition.

3. Hence, a direction is issued to issue mark statement relating to third semester if not already issued. Further, the learned counsel for the University states that if the petitioner has requisite attendance for the subsequent semester, he would be permitted to write the examination.

4. Recording the same, this writ petition is closed. No costs. Consequently, connected M.P. is also closed.
