[Order of the Court was made by The Honourable the Chief Justice]

We are not inclined to entertain this Public Interest Litigation. Respondent No.4 Board not laying down specific books does not mean that it should be called upon to lay down uniform curriculum or method of education for all Schools. Education must have options for different schools to formulate their own academic and extra curricular calendar. We find this writ petition is misconceived and hence dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is also dismissed.
