2. If there is any effective alternative remedy of approaching the Members of the Legislative Assembly of the Constituency, the petitioner can address the grievance of the public and therefore, the petitioner should first seek redressal through the representative of the people and then come to the Court. These are all issues, which are within the domain of executives and the petitioner has to approach the Government, for redressal of people's grievance. No cause in public interest is involved.

3. With the above observation, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
