3. On an earlier occasion, this Court, while dealing with a similar issue relating to removal of encroachments on Government lands, in W.P.No.26722 of 2013, by order dated 08.10.2014, issued following direction to the Government:-

"The State Government must set forth a mechanism where aggrieved persons can complain and remedial action can be taken. Promptly, they are called upon do so. We have thus, requested the learned Government Pleader to enter appearance in this matter and obtain instructions from the State Government, in what manner such an authority be set up, due publicity given to the authorities where aggrieved persons would be first required to make their representations and a remedial action and reasoned response be communicated within a period of 30 days from such complaint being made. Once such a mechanism is set up, there would be no occasion to entertain a PIL, on the first instance in such matters as an administrative machinery would be available for remedying the position".

4. Pursuant to the above said direction, the Government passed a Government Order in G.O.Ms.No.540, Revenue LD6(2) Department, dated 04.12.2014, wherein the Government accorded sanction for constitution of Redressal Committees for eviction of encroachment with the following procedures:-

(i) General Procedure: In general, as per Section 7 of Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905, before taking proceedings, the Collector or Tahsildar shall cause to serve on the person a notice calling upon him to show cause why he should not be evicted. On receipt of such petition, the Tahsildar may cause inspection at least at the level of Deputy Tahsildar, to decide whether the Government land is being encroached or not. If convinced of the fact that the Government land is being encroached, he shall serve a "Show Cause Notice" to the encroacher under Section 7 of Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905. Subsequently, other procedure as laid down under the Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act should be followed within a stipulated time.

A detailed written reply should be sent to the petitioner giving details of the action, if any, taken as per Tamil Nadu Land Encroachment Act, 1905 and the entire process shall be completed within 60 days from the date of receipt of petition.

4.The Additional Chief Secretary and Commissioner of Land Administration is requested to issue necessary instructions to all District Collectors to constitute the above mentioned Redressal Committees immediately for eviction of encroachment.
