

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T.SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL PETITION No.13878 of 2015

ORDER:

This petition is filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the proceedings against the petitioners/accused Nos.1 to 4 in Crime No.582 of 2015 of Medchal Police Station, Cyberabad, Ranga Reddy District, registered for the offence punishable under Sections 457 and 380 IPC.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Public Prosecutor representing the State.

A perusal of the record reveals that the petitioners are accused Nos.1 to 4 and the second respondent is the de facto complainant. As per the allegations made in the complaint, the petitioners herein entered into the house of the second respondent bearing No.362, Prajay Water Front, Muraharapally village, Medchal Mandal and committed theft of electrical goods. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioners is that the cheques issued by the second respondent in favour of the petitioners were not honoured for want of funds. A perusal of the record further reveals that civil suit is pending between the parties. Whether the petitioners have committed the alleged offence or not will come to light during the course of investigation only.

It is needless to say that the court has to take into consideration the allegations made in the complaint while exercising inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C., in order to quash the criminal proceedings at the initial stage of investigation. The court is not justified in embarking upon an enquiry to ascertain the truthfulness, genuineness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint. It is a settled principle of law that the inherent power should not be exercised to stifle a legitimate investigation. If the allegations made in the complaint do not constitute the offence much less the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioners, then this court can quash the proceedings in order to prevent abuse of process of court thereby to secure the ends of justice.

I have carefully perused the material available on record in order to ascertain whether the allegations made in the complaint are patently absurd and inherently improbable thereby to quash the proceedings. The material available on record is prima facie sufficient to investigate into the matter in order to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principle enunciated in R.P.KAPOOR v. STATE OF PUNJAB, STATE OF HARYANA v. BHAJAN LAL, V.Y.JOSE V STATE OF GURAJAT AND TEEJA DEVI v. STATE OF RAJASTHAN, I am of the considered view that this is not a fit case to quash the criminal proceedings at the threshold.

The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners 3 and 4/A3 and A4 were enlarged on bail. He further submitted that the concerned Station House Officer may be directed not to arrest the petitioners 1 and 2/A1 and A2 till completion of investigation.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the Station House Officer, Medchal Police Station, Cyberabad, is hereby directed not to arrest the petitioners 1 and 2/accused Nos.1 and 2 in Crime No.582 of 2015 till completion of investigation.

With the above direction, the Criminal Petition is dismissed.

Consequently, Miscellaneous Petitions, if any, pending in this Criminal Petition shall stand closed.
