The case of the petitioner association is that the members of the petitioner association purchased residential plots in Yadav Nagar and constructed houses long back after obtaining due building permission. They are also paying property tax, electricity charges and also water charges. While so, some unsocial elements and land grabbers with an intention to construct a wall, blocked the road leading to road No.5 and 7, by dumping load of granite in the middle of the road which is causing great hardship to the residents of the East Yadav nagar Colony. Aggrieved by the same, present writ petition is filed.
