

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE U.DURGA PRASAD RAO
Crl.P.M.P.No.692 of 2015 in Crl.P.No.674 of 2015
and
Crl.P.No.674 of 2015

Common Order:

The de facto complainant and her counsel Sri M.A.H.Amjad are present. A.1 and A.2 and their counsel Sri M.A.K.Mukheed are present.

Heard both sides and perused the petition.

The Police of Panjagutta P.S. laid charge sheet in FIR No.346 of 2012 against the accused for the offences under Section 324 IPC and the learned XIV Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, at Hyderabad took cognizance of the same and registered as C.C.No.1063 of 2012.

Now the submission of both sides is that at the intervention of elders, they have amicably resolved their disputes and proposed to live peacefully and hence seek this Court to permit them to enter into compromise and consequently quash the proceedings in C.C.No.1063 of 2012 on the file of XIV Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, at Hyderabad in the interest of justice.

Having regard to the above submission and also considering that the offence alleged is not a grave or heinous one and that no useful purpose will be served even if the parties are driven to trial as they have already settled the matter and there is no chance of trial ending in conviction and also following the decision of Apex Court reported in Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another^[1], this petition is allowed and permission is accorded to the parties to compromise and compromise is recorded in terms of the compromise petition filed herewith and consequently the proceedings in C.C.No.1063 of 2012 on the file of XIV Additional Chief Metropolitan Magistrate, at Hyderabad are hereby quashed.

In the result, both the petitions are accordingly disposed of.

As a sequel, miscellaneous petitions pending, if any, shall stand closed.
