ORDER:

Accused no.3 in C.C.No.261 of 2015 on the file of the Court of the Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Kodad had filed this criminal petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure requesting to quash the proceedings against her in the above said Calendar Case.

3. The case of the petitioner is this: - 'She is working as a Sub-Engineer in Office of Divisional Engineer (Electrical), Miryalguda. She is the sister of the first accused. Since a long time she is staying away from her parents' house. She is innocent and has been un-necessarily roped in though she is not involved in any offence, on the allegation that she abetted her brother-A1 to demand dowry from the de facto complainant.'

4. During the course of hearing, it is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the criminal petition may be disposed of by an appropriate order dispensing with the presence of the petitioner/A3 before the trial court except on the dates when her presence is necessary.
