

HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE A. SHANKAR NARAYANA

CRL.MP.No. 3307 of 2015

and

CRIMINAL PETITION No.3115 of 2015

ORDER:

The instant petition is laid, under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, by the petitioner, who is arraigned as the sole accused, requesting this Court to quash FIR.No.437 of 2012 of Dundigal Police Station, Cyberabad, for the offences punishable under Sections 419, 468 and 471 IPC which was registered on the complaint of the second respondent.

Facts are to the effect that the petitioner herein purchased an extent of Ac.1.20 guntas out of Ac.5.04 guntas in Sy.No.478 of Bachupally Village, Quthbullapur Mandal, Ranga Reddy District, and, subsequently, he came to know that his vendors were not the original owners and got a cancellation deed executed.

The second respondent, who is the complainant, entered into compromise with the petitioner and filed a petition in Crl.M.P.No.3307 of 2015; that he filed a separate affidavit; and a joint memo signed by both the petitioner and the second respondent and their respective counsel is filed .

In view of the decisions of the Hon'ble Apex Court in Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and Manohar Singh v. State of Madhya Pradesh, and since the dispute is of civil nature, the compromise would not affect the society at large.

Therefore, permission is accorded to record compromise allowing CRL.MP.No. 3307 of 2015. Compromise is recorded in terms of joint memo filed by the parties. Hence, the proceedings in FIR.No.437 of 2012 of Dundigal

Police Station, Cyberabad, are hereby quashed.

The Criminal Petition is, accordingly, allowed.

As a sequel thereto, miscellaneous applications pending, if any, shall stand dismissed.
