Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that initially the petitioners were shown as accused in the above said crime, but after completion of investigation, the police filed charge sheet deleting the names of the petitioners. He further submitted that subsequently, the de facto complainant filed a private complaint before the Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Tadipatri, and basing on same, the learned Magistrate took cognizance against the petitioners and issued NBWs and hence, the petitioners filed this petition apprehending arrest in the hands of the police.

It is informed by the learned Public Prosecutor that the petitioners have filed CrI.R.C. No.2472 of 2015 against order of taking cognizance against them by the learned Magistrate and this Court while ordering notice in the said revision, granted stay of arrest of the petitioners.
