

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T.SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL PETITION No.11324 of 2015

ORDER:

This petition is filed under Section 482 of Cr.P.C., to quash the proceedings against the petitioner/accused in Crime No.45 of 2015 of Jangareddygudem Police Station, registered for the offences under Sections 498A IPC and Sections 3 and 4 of Dowry Prohibition Act.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Public Prosecutor representing the State.

3. The petitioner is sole accused and second respondent is de facto complainant in Crime No.45 of 2015. The petitioner is none other than the husband of the second respondent. As per the allegations made in the complaint, the petitioner subjected the second respondent to cruelty for additional dowry. It is further alleged that at the time of the marriage, the parents of the second respondent gave an amount of Rs.10,00,000/- to the petitioner towards dowry.

4. It is needless to say that the court has to take into consideration the allegations made in the complaint while exercising inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C., in order to quash the criminal proceedings at the initial stage of investigation. The court is not justified in embarking upon an enquiry to ascertain the truthfulness, genuineness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint. It is a settled principle of law that the inherent power should not be exercised to stifle a legitimate investigation. If the allegations made in the complaint do not constitute the offence much less the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner, then this court can quash the proceedings in order to prevent abuse of process of court thereby to secure the ends of justice.

5 .I have carefully perused the allegations made in the complaint in order to ascertain whether the allegations made in the complaint are patently absurd and inherently improbable thereby to quash the proceedings. The material available on record is prima facie sufficient to investigate into the matter in order to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint.

6. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principle enunciated in R.P.Kapoor v State of Punjab, State of Haryana v Bhajan Lal, V.Y.Jose v State of Gurajat and Teeja Devi v State of Rajasthan, I am of the considered view that this is not a fit case to quash the criminal proceedings at the threshold.

7. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the concerned Station House Officer may be directed not to arrest the petitioner during the pendency of the investigation. Taking into consideration the nature of the allegations made in the complaint and also the principle enunciated in Arnesh Kumar v State of Bihar, the Station House Officer, Jangareddygudem Police Station, is hereby directed to follow the procedure as contemplated under Section 41A Cr.P.C., in Crime No.45 of 2015 so far as the petitioner/accused is concerned.

8. With the above direction, the criminal petition is dismissed. Miscellaneous petitions, if any pending in the criminal petition, shall stand closed.
