Writ Petition No.14789 of 2015

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, for the following relief:

“to issue a writ, order or direction more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Mandamus, declaring the action of the respondents 1 and 2 in failing to consider the petitioners representation dated 05-05-2015 for handing over the investigation to CBCID in Crime No.261 of 2014 dated 12-12-2014 pending on the file of the 3rd respondent and taking steps in hurried manner for filing charge sheet is illegal, unconstitutional and violative of the Provisions of Cr.P.C and consequently, direct the respondents to forthwith hand over the investigation to CBCID by protecting the life and liberty including the properties of the petitioners and pass such other order or orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.”

Heard Sri M. Janardhana Rao, learned counsel for the petitioners and learned Government Pleader for Home, apart from perusing the material available before the Court.

It is represented by the learned counsel for the petitioners that the petitioners herein are ready and willing to avail the remedies available to them under the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Recording the said submission made by the learned counsel, the writ petition is closed, giving liberty to the petitioners herein to avail the remedies under the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The miscellaneous petitions, if any, filed in the writ petition, shall also stand closed. There shall be no order as to costs.

A.V. SESA SAI, J.
