The Court made the following:

ORDER:

This Writ Petition is filed for a mandamus to declare letter Rc.No.Peshi/395/2015, dated 6-10-2015 of respondent No.2, as illegal and arbitrary.

I have heard the learned Counsel for the parties and perused the record.

By the impugned letter, respondent No.2 has informed the petitioner that the Enquiry Committee will be visiting the latter's premises for conducting enquiry from 12-10-2015 to 14-10-2015 and that the petitioner shall keep all the required documents and staff working with it for verification. On the petitioner's own pleadings, the Enquiry Committee has not visited the petitioner's premises as per the notification. Therefore, the Writ Petition filed questioning the said notification has rendered itself infructuous. Hence, I do not find the necessity of adjudicating the validity of the said notice. The Writ Petition is accordingly dismissed.

As a sequel to the dismissal of the Writ Petition, WPMP No.48557 of 2015 filed for interim relief is dismissed as infructuous.
