WRIT PETITION NO. 29998 OF 2015

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for the following relief :

“To declare the inaction of the first respondent with regard to not considering the representation dated 08/09/2015 for extension of parole for a period of four months w.e.f. 21/09/2015 by declaring the inaction as illegal, arbitrary and violative of rights guaranteed under Article 14, 21 and 300-A of the Constitution of India and further to declare that the writ petitioner is entitled for the same and to pass such other suitable orders as this court may deems fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.”

2. Heard Sri Balla Ravindranath, learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Pleader for Home for the respondents.

3. According to the petitioner, he is a convict bearing No. 4231. He was lodged in Central Prison, Cherlapalli, Ranga Reddy district. The petitioner herein submitted a representation dated 08/09/2015 to the first respondent-State Government seeking extension of parole for a further period of four months on the ground of illness of his mother.

4. The grievance of the petitioner herein in the present writ petition is that despite expiry of considerable length of time, no action has been taken by the first respondent on the said representation dated 08/09/2015 submitted by the petitioner herein for extension of parole.

5. On instructions, it is submitted by the learned Government Pleader for Home that the said representation dated 08/09/2015 is still pending before the first respondent-State Government.

6. In support of his contention, learned counsel for the petitioner places reliance on the order of this Court in the case of MOHD. IRFAN ALI V/s. MUJEEBUNNISAS BEGUM AND ORS ^{[\[1\]](#)}.

7. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and having regard to the order passed by this Court in Mohd. Irfan Ali's case supra, the writ petition is disposed of extending the period of parole to the petitioner herein till the disposal of the representation dated 08/09/2015 pending with the first respondent. This extension shall however be subject to condition that the petitioner will not leave Hyderabad without the permission of this Court and will report at the Station House
