COMMON ORDER:

These writ petitions are filed for an identical relief viz., for a mandamus directing the respondents not to interfere with the aquaculture activity by the petitioners pending their applications for permissions.

At the hearing, Mr.Ch.N.Mehar Baba, learned counsel representing Mr.V.V.Prabhakara Rao, learned counsel for the petitioners, submitted that the applications made by his clients were subsequently disposed of and that they have made fresh applications. The learned counsel has accordingly submitted that the cause in these writ petitions does not survive for adjudication.

In the light of the above submissions, these Writ Petitions are dismissed as infructuous.

As a sequel to dismissal of these writ petitions, interim orders passed earlier in these cases shall stand vacated and all the pending W.P.M.Ps. and W.V.M.Ps. shall stand dismissed as infructuous.
