When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned senior counsel appearing for the writ petitioner submits that nothing survives for adjudication in this writ petition, and, therefore, requests to dismiss the writ petition as infructuous by leaving open the questions of law.

The learned counsel for the 3rd respondent submits that no question of law is involved.

In reply, the learned senior counsel submits that the question of law is in regard to interpretation of bylaws and powers of the Secretary of the Hyderabad Cricket Association and, therefore, for abundant caution such a submission is made.

Having regard to the submissions of the learned counsel for both the sides and recording the submissions of the learned senior counsel for the writ petitioner, the Writ Petition is dismissed as infructuous leaving open the questions of law, if any, involved in this writ petition. No costs.

Miscellaneous petitions, pending if any, in the writ petition shall stand closed.
