I have heard the submissions of the learned counsel for the writ petitioners and the learned Standing Counsel appearing for the fourth respondent.

The learned counsel for the petitioners points out that in the counter affidavit filed by the 1st respondent, it is stated that the 4th respondent temple had again conducted public auction on 03.05.2010 and that the petitioners also participated in the public auction along with others by accepting the auction conditions and that the petitioners 2 to 6 herein and the son of the 1st petitioner viz., Induri Satyanarayana Reddy became highest bidders for the period of three years from 2010-11 to 2012-13 on cash maktha for six bits of land and paid their highest bid amounts and entered into the land as new lessees and, therefore, the said averment in the counter may be recorded and the writ petition may be disposed of.

The learned Standing Counsel submits that the writ petition has become infructuous.

Recording the aforesaid submissions, the writ petition is disposed of as no cause survives for adjudication.
