THE HON'BLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE SRI KALYAN JYOTI SENGUPTA

AND

WRIT PETITION Nos.8862, 8863 & 8865 OF 2015

COMMON ORDER: (per the Hon'ble The Chief Justice Sri Kalyan Jyoti Sengupta)

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, we dispose of the writ petitions by the following order.

In these writ petitions, the petitioner challenged the orders, dated 26.02.2015, passed by the respondent.

According to learned counsel for the petitioner, without deciding the questions and contentions raised by his client, the respondent authority has decided the matter by assigning inadequate reasons and therefore, he prays to set aside the aforesaid orders.

We are unable to do so, as we cannot relegate ourselves to that of appellate authority under the statute. We have seen the impugned orders and it appears, some reasons have been assigned, which may or may not be adequate. The writ Court is not supposed to issue direction on inadequacy of reasons, and it can be taken care of by the appellate authority. We, therefore, grant liberty to the petitioner to prefer appeal in accordance with law and the appellate authority shall decide the matter as early as possible.

The writ petitions are accordingly dismissed.

Pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, shall stand closed. There will be no order as to costs.
