The first respondent filed counter stating that the appointment of these three persons were purely in accordance with rules governing recruitment and no illegality or irregularities were committed and in view of the expansion of the business and increase of the turnover, the assistance of the existing staff including the writ petitioners is very much necessary for discharge of its responsibilities, multifarious functions effectively and smoothly.

Cooperative Societies Act duly following the procedure in case the salary bill exceeds the limit stipulated therein.

4. It is represented that all the petitioners are still continuing and working without any remarks.

5. In view of the specific plea taken in the counter that the presence of petitioners as employees is required for discharge of the responsibilities, multifarious functions of the first respondent effectively and smoothly, both advocates submitted that no further orders are necessary and that this writ petition can be closed by confirming the interim orders dated 26-06-2003.
