WRIT APPEAL Nos.161 & 162 OF 2015

Common Judgment: (per the Hon'ble The Chief Justice Sri Kalyan Jyoti Sengupta)

On identical matter, being, Writ Appeal No. 111 of 2015, we have decided the issue raised therein and in these appeals also, similar contention has been raised. Therefore, we pass similar order as it has been passed in the aforesaid writ appeal.

We think the order asking the official respondents to act in accordance with law, in the fact and situation in this case, would suffice and we order accordingly. The parties will be free to approach appropriate forum to get their inter se disputes as regards title and possession settled before appropriate Civil Court. It is also open for the parties to ask for interlocutory orders in the form of injunction or in any other form before appropriate Court. In view of this judgment, nothing remains to be adjudicated in the writ petition. It would therefore be open for the writ petitioners, or for that matter the parties concerned, to get the writ petition disposed of technically.

The writ appeals are accordingly disposed of. There will be no order as to costs.
